		MATTERS DEALT WITH ON PAPER
Before:		The Hon. Mr. Davidson Kelvin Baptiste, Justice of Appeal
Case Name:		Webster Dyrud Mitchell (A Partnership) John Dyrud Palmavon Webster Appellants/Respondents v Jenny Lindsay Respondent/Applicant [AXAHCVAP2017/0001] Jenny Lindsay Appellant/Applicant v Webster Dyrud Mitchell (A Partnership) John Dyrud Palmavon Webster Respondents [AXAHCVAP2017/0002] (Anguilla)
Date:		Tuesday, 6th June 2017
On paper:
	Applicant:	Mr. John Fuller (Jenny Lindsay & Associates)
	Respondents:	Mr. John Carrington, QC and Ms. Rayana Dowden

		(Webster)
Issue:		Application for consolidation of appeals – Application for extension of time to file and serve skeleton arguments, core bundle and record of appeal
Result / Order:		IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT: 1. The application to consolidate is dismissed. 2. The applicant is granted an extension of time to file and serve skeleton arguments in appeal AXAHCVAP2017/0002. 3. The applicant is to file and serve skeleton arguments with 42 days of the date of this order.
Reasons:		The Court noted that it has a discretionary power to consolidate and that the discretion is to be used to further the overriding objective of the Civil Procedure Rules to ensure that cases are dealt with fairly, expeditiously and proportionately with a view to saving expense and time. The Court also noted that though the appeals concern the same factual matrix, and there are common questions of fact and law, the same trial and same judgment, the respondent's appeal is of a very narrow compass while the applicant's appeal is considerably broader in scope. The matters covered by the respondent's appeal constitute a minute fraction of the applicant's appeal. The Court further noted that the common question of law or fact does not bear sufficient importance in proportion to the rest of the appeal and that there is no common appellant or respondent in the two appeals. The Court considered the existing factual matrix, notably that the respondent's appeal is ripe for hearing and has been listed for hearing in October 2017 and that the applicant is seeking an extension of time for the preparation of the Record of Appeal and submissions, with the potential for jeopardizing the timely prosecution of the respondent's appeal; The Court had regard to the breadth of the applicant's appeal and was of the view that it is unlikely that an order for consolidation will result in significant saving of time or expense or is necessary to deal with the appeals justly.
